

This is the 21st century. Morse Code is an out dated form of communication and is no longer practical or necessary for Amateur Radio communication. Eliminate the Morse Code requirement altogether. The only use for CW that I see is for contests. A lot of radio operators like to communicate on the airwaves, not contest. Jim (kd5kif)